Mercy Community Crisis Pregnancy Center in Reading, PA, presents Lovin' Life 5K and 1 Mile Fun Run/Walk to support local women and men who find themselves in unplanned pregnancy situations. MCCPC provides volunteer peer counseling and support services to give clients alternatives to abortion and hope so that they can choose to love life. This is a great nonprofit to support, but it's also a great 5K event for the novice and competitive runner. Our race director has a decade of race directing experience for races of over 500 participants and has designed a great course with a first rate team of volunteers to make certain you have a great experience.
